The auspicious program of teachers' day was conducted by Indian Maritime University in coordination with all the IMU Campuses. The session was brilliantly hosted by Ishika Sinha of Indian Maritime University Kolkata Campus and Gurkaran Singh of Chennai Campus. Continuing the lamp lighting the event started by felicitating the Guest of Honor by Vice Chancellor Dr. Malini Shankar herself. And then facilitating the Chief Guest Padma Shri Sujit Chattopadhyay by Shri Eswara Arun Kishore. Also, a portrait of our "Master Moshai" drawn by one of the cadets of Indian Maritime University was gifted to him.

To add some more glitters to the program, glimpses of the journey of the Vice Chancellor and the Indian Maritime University were shown and the Presidential Address was delivered.

Dr. Malini Shankar started her address by showing a motivational video on a teacher with his innovative way of teaching. She then welcomed the Chief Guest Shri Sujit Chattopadhyay and the Guest of Honor Smt. N K Hemlata ji. She also paid tribute to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan to mark the significance of this day. Dr. Shankar shared her two experiences to elucidate the importance of teachers in our lives. The first example was how she was helped by her teachers in college and the second example was her inspirational interaction with the director of IIT MADRAS.

With the continuation of the program, it was time for the words from Padma Shri Sujit Chattopadhyay. Being a resident of Burdwan, West Bengal he knows what poverty looks like and that's where his initiative to teach students free of cost started. His journey from being the former President of Ramnagar Uchha Madhyamik Vidyalaya to "Master Moshai" was not only challenging but also much helpful for the needy students. The man who can understand the pain of poor students and still suffering from his own struggles yet continues to stick to the goal is a true example of a pure human being. His words were not only mesmerizing but also inspiring.

The glory of the program was maintained by the words of Smt. Hemlata N K. The journey of a Tamil teacher from C Kunnathur Government Higher Secondary School to become the "Best Teacher" as declared by the Tamil Nadu Government was explained along with her perspective on teaching and education.

Coming towards the end of the session it was time for the announcement of the winner's names of the Four events conducted on the event of Teachers' Day 2022. In the Book Review Competition the first, second, and third place was secured by Mr. Suresh P N (IMU-CC), Dr. Shivani Rana (IMU-NMC), Dr. Lekha Ravi (IMU-CC), respectively. In the Case Study Presentation, the winners were Dr. B. Swaminathan (IMU-CC), Mrs. Chitra Mukunnann (IMU-CC), Mr. Prasanna Kumar (IMU-KC).

Now was the time for showcasing the strength of the teacher-student bond and it was the events of the Maritime Quiz and Singing Competition where the strength of this beautiful bond was seen. The winner's panel from the Maritime Quiz consisted of Prof. Benny John and Ms. Mrunalini (IMU-CC), Dr. Deepak Kumar Mishra and Cadet Satyam Dubey (IMU-KC), Chief Engineer Mr. Yashpal Singh and Cadet Navneet Thakur (IMU-MPC). The winners of the Singing competition were secured by Mr Tapas Barua and Ms. Moubani Sarkar (IMU-KC), Dr. H.L Yogamala and Ms.Sree Parvathi P (IMU-KOC) and Mrs. Sumita Dey and Cadet Manas Kishor B (IMU-NMC).

The organizing committee worked diligently to make this event a huge success and in this way, the auspicious event of teachers' day went very smoothly and showcased the synergy among all the IMU campuses who worked dedicatedly for the successful conduction of this event. The came to an end wishing each and every cadet good wishes for their betterment and with the aim of strengthening the teacher-student bond.
