12th Foundation Day Celebrations- Maritime Trainers Guild

The Maritime Trainers Guild (MTG) Foundation Day Event held on August 5, 2023, at Holiday INN in Chennai, India, focused on the vital theme of Developing Future-Ready Maritime Trainers. The event brought together maritime industry professionals, educators, policymakers, and experts to discuss, collaborate, and strategize the ways in which maritime trainers can enhance their skills, adapt to evolving industry demands, and prepare the next generation of maritime professionals for success in a rapidly changing global landscape.

Capt. Kamal Chadha (General Secretary, MTG) welcomed all the members, dignitaries, and Chief Guest, Shri Shyam Jagannathan, IAS (Directorate General of Shipping, India). Capt. Prabhat Nigam (President, MTG) discussed the brief history and the journey of MTG from 2012. Shri Shyam Jagannathan in his address mentioned the Maritime Vision 2030 and highlighted how India ranks among the top five economies contributing to seafarers globally owing to cutting-edge core competencies. He hinted at examination reforms and an urgent need to improve and introduce a revamped examination platform by April 2024.

Three Panel discussions were organized highlighting the necessity of adapting training methodologies to align with technological advancements, industry shifts, and the expectations of the next generation of seafarers. The discussions emphasized the significance of embracing Information and Communication Technology, collaborative learning, continuous professional development, and practical relevance in shaping the
