the crew and passenger comfort requirements

These requirements are verified as per the MLC Code which deals with preventing the risk of exposure to hazardous levels of noise and vibration on board ships, and providing an acceptable occupational and onboard living environment for seafarers

IRS' Marine Technical Services (MTS) are recognized for accurate data acquisition and in-depth analysis.

GSL has appreciated IRS for continuous support and timely completion of the project despite challenges caused by the global pandemic.

Established in-house procedures are followed for noise measurement and analysis as per SOLAS II-1/3-12, and for vibration measurement and analysis as per standard ISO 20283-5 and customer specifications.

IRS has performed noise and vibration analysis for more than 200 vessels including Indian Coast Guard vessels, passenger vessels, cement carriers, oceanographic vessels, diving support vessels, and a variety of support vessels, said a release.

NUSI initiative for Seafarer to receive priority booking in Indian Railway

Celebrating 125 years of Trust

National Union of Seafarers of India (NUSI) announced that the long pending demand with the Government of India (GOI) of getting priority in railway travel for all ranks of seafarers is being discussed by the GOI through the Ministry of Defence, Ministry of Health, Ministry of Shipping and the Ministry of Railways. Shri Bhagat Singh Koshyari, Hon'ble Governor of Maharashtra had personally taken up the NUSI demand with the Government of India.

The necessary instructions have now been issued by the Government of India, Ministry of Railways – Railway Board vide No. 2021/TG-I/20/P/15 dated 29th April 2022 to Principal Chief Commercial Managers of All Zonal Railways. The instructions are to consider providing confirmed accommodation by giving due priority as per guidelines out of Emergency Quota for any request received from Merchant Navy seafarers going to join a ship or coming down from the ship.

Mr. Abdulgani Serang, General Secretary NUSI expressed his joy and said "This is a great victory for all ranks of seafarers as the Government of India has acknowledged the important role of merchant navy seafarers in facilitating their travel. NUSI and all ranks of seafarers thank Shri Bhagat Singh Koshyari, Hon'ble Governor of Maharashtra, Shri Sarbananda Sonowal, Hon'ble Cabinet Minister of Ports, Shipping and Waterways, and Ayush & Government of India".
