Capt. Hari Subramaniam, Regional Head Business Relations - The Shipowners P&I Club receives “Outstanding Individual Contribution To Safety at Sea” award by MPA Singapore.

Capt. Hari Subramaniam - Regional Head of Business Relations of The Shipowners P&I Club, has been honored the 'Outstanding Individual Contribution To Safety at Sea' award from the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA) at the 2020 International Safety at Sea Awards! This award is one of the highest recognitions in Maritime Excellence from the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA) Singapore Govt-Outstanding Individual Contribution to Safety at Sea.

This year saw a record number of nominations under this category which required the nominee to “Consistently and substantially demonstrate safety in the working environment and in engagement with the maritime industry”.

The award was presented to Capt. Hari for his dedication to interacting and engaging with various stakeholders in the Maritime industry towards promoting safety across the South East Asia region. He has represented the shipping community at regional and international events and has conducted pertinent webinars for the shipping fraternity on key issues which brought together experts from various parts of the world. Capt. Hari has also facilitated educational workshops for maritime students at SMA and conducted training sessions for the MPA's working sub-committees, and at regional conferences including the International Safety at Sea conference.

His most notable contributions in 2019:

- * Training on MLC 2006 and Rights of Seafarers to Port Chaplains of Mission to Seafarers and Sailors Society at the ICMA (International Christian Missionaries Association) World conference in Taiwan on Oct 2019.

- * Conducted Accident investigation Training Workshop at MPA'S ICOPCE 2019 and also chaired the opening day of the conference.

- * Conducted Training session for Deck COC Students of SMA on Accident prevention and The Human element.

- * Engagement with CEMS and SMA with polls and research into accident statistics of vessels in Singapore waters towards development for proposal of new navigational simulator.

- * Hari has actively conducted detailed training in risk assessments for various segments of shipping such as passenger vessels, containers, fishing, tankers, enclosed space entry and mooring operations.

- * As Vice-President of the Nautical Institute Singapore, Capt. Hari is very active with identifying and developing engagement and training programmes for the maritime fraternity.

* Conducted numerous free training sessions and workshops on Seafarers Crew Wellness and Wellbeing, Safe Container operations, Safe Tanker operations, Safe Tug and Barge Towing operations Seafarers and Crew Wellness for shipping companies in Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, China and Philippines across 2019 including participating in Regional Crew Training Seminars.

Congratulations Capt. Hari Subramaniam on such an amazing achievement which is so very well deserved and keep up the exemplary work!
